FOR $30 YOU

get a silk-lined costume to order that is high class in style, goods, make and fit.

You might pay more money elsewhere and not get as good as we make.

To say that we give you for $30 what we once asked $60 for, would be an insult to your intelligence.

Values never have depreciated to that extent.

We do not resort to sensational announcements.

You are not limited to your choice of materials.

Our business has been built on these lines, and what we say we do, WE DO.

GREAT ALLIANCE—Merit, Newness, Variety, Special Prices.

REGULAR routine of Fall business prescribes that we advertise styles, quantities and novelties. They are all here—conspicuously in evidence. For descriptions we substitute the strongest list of representative values any Dry Goods House could possibly authorize. Read on their merits, with remembrance whence they come, nothing can hinder our greatest Autumn week from opening up Monday, October 2d.

Opening Sale—Tea Gowns, Wrappers, etc.

AN event ever interesting, particularly so right at this time, when our largest, most varied assortments are to be seen. This being an Empire season in Tea Gowns all the beauties of that period are developed by the great Parisian artists in rich color harmonies, Real Laces and hand embroiderings.

SPECIAL VALUES:

Tea Gowns, from Doucet, Callot and Paquin 198.00

Tea Gowns, from Raudnitz, Beer and Rouff 149.00

Tea Gowns, from Worth, Sarah Mayer, Vincent 98.00

Continuing Corset Sale.

In face of unprecedented selling there yet remain many wonderful bargains in "Judie" Corsets, from which all figures may be suited, in sizes ranging from 18 to 30 inches. The subjoined sacrifice prices put finest French Corsets at a barely higher level than ordinary Domestic grades. Three divisions, including models from Augustin, Magnier, Leoty and Marcel present wonderful inducements:

Lot 1 - $3.98 Lot 2 - $6.25 Lot 3 - $9.00 were formerly $5.75 were formerly $12. were formerly $15.

New Fall Importations of "Judies," Just Received.

Extraordinary Ribbon Sale.

Most Desirable Silk Ribbons Are Sacrificed.

By the recent failure of one of our best Silk Ribbon manufacturers we have just his entire stock of double faced Satin Ribbons, with cord edge—very finest quality made and the most desirable of present styles.

SECURED AT FORCED SALE

5366 Pieces are in this sale—5 separate widths—exactly 87 different shades, with white and cream; no blacks.

These Ribbons, being all of recent manufacture, the colorings are naturally most desirable. Note the numbers and the comparison of former prices with to-morrow's unprecedented figures:

Numbers 7	12	16	40 and 60
Present sale prices 13c	17c	24c	33c 39c yard
Lowest previous prices 20c	29c	38c	52c 68c yard

Continuation of Great Silk Sale.

WE have received from the manufacturer our final and complete shipments of Corded Taffetas. Never in the history of silk selling have we offered at the first of the season new and desirable silks of equal value. The line includes both evening and street shades, and represents this season's most desirable color combinations—positively the last we shall have to offer at this price.
